Knights of Columbus Will Hold Picnic at Peck Park

A co-sponsored picnic will be presented for the members of the Los Crusados and St. Gerard councils and their families on Sunday, Aug. 28, at Peck's Park in San Pedro, Lyle J. O'Hara, grand knight of the Los Crusados council, announced this week.

The two local fraternal organizations have extended an invitation to the Angel's Gate council of San Pedro to participate in the picnic activities.

Vincent Wiegel, chairman of the annual Knights of Columbus event, has indicated that a full program of games for the children and adults, plus free refreshments, has been planned for the day.

A CLASS of thirteen new members were initiated into the First Degree of the Knights of Columbus during ceremonies conducted in the Los Crusados council chambers last Monday. The Los Crusados council was represented by Forrest Fifield, Joseph Sabos, Lyle Freckleton, Stanley Narnala, James J. Blayzack, Bryant Bedinger and Raoul Monroy. Candidates from the St. Gerard, St. Patrick's, and Gardena councils were also initiated.

ONLY A FEW tickets remain for the Los Crusados council "Family Sports Night" and the Dodgers-Pirates game of Aug. 30th, according to a report made to this week's meeting by Joe Grieco, committee chairman. The "package" arrangement includes transportation from the council hall. The bus will leave at 6:30 p.m.

The Rev. Marion Piles announced today that T. "Texas" Tyler will be at the Harbor City Foursquare Church tomorrow evening for a special service. The meeting will begin at 7:30 p.m.

Mr. Tyler will tell the story of his conversion. He will also play his guitar and sing for the service. Pastor Piles invites all who are interested to attend the service.

Administration Post Set Up by Great Western

Great Western Savings and Loan Assn. has created a new administrative division, according to an announcement yesterday by Emil J. Seliga, executive vice president and managing officer of the association. The new division is responsible for personnel administration.

Simultaneously, Seliga announced that Gordon J. Madden was elected vice president by the Association's board of directors. Madden will head the newly created personnel division.

GREAT WESTERN Savings has long been among the leaders in personnel activities in the savings and loan industry and is one of the largest and most progressive associations in the country.

Seliga stressed the importance of selecting qualified personnel to serve Great Western customers. "In a service business such as ours it becomes increasingly important to select the right person to meet the public and to reflect Great Western's genuine desire to provide the best in customer service."

MADDEN WAS raised in Waukesha, Wisconsin and was graduated from Marquette University, with a bachelor philosophy degree in liberal arts and a master's degree in psychology.

He has an extensive background in personnel, industrial relations and personnel management. His prime responsibility will be administering the Association's personnel program, including employment, management development and training, salary administration, communications and employee activities.

Presently, Madden is a member of the Personnel and Industrial Relations Association, the American Personnel and Guidance Assn., Los Angeles Junior Chamber of Commerce and the American Savings and Loan Institute.
